

Animals of Valence House

All of these animals visit the gardens at Valence House. Have you seen any of them during a visit? Complete the maze to find all of the animals.

Herbert the heron is a carnivore. He eats fish, mice and insects.

Long John Silver, one of our magpies has a poorly leg. He is very curious and hops around on his good leg, exploring the garden.

Samson and Delilah, two of our Egyptian geese like to spend their time climbing on the Ford Capri car sculpture and drinking from the dog bowls.

Woody the woodpecker likes to tap his beak on the chimneys of the museum.
